PRIVACY NOTICE FOR THE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT AND ALUMNI RELATIONS AT THE GLASGOW SCHOOL OF ART

Completed by Development Office for all contacts on RE Database

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR THE COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE AT THE GLASGOW SCHOOL OF ART
General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2016

Background and Purpose

The Glasgow School of Art is a higher education institution and a registered Charity SC012490. This privacy notice explains how the Communications Office at The Glasgow School of Art collects, manages and uses your personal data to support the core activities of the School and how we use and maintain the security of that personal data. The Glasgow School of Art is the data controller.

The legal basis for processing your data

The Communications Office processes and retains personal data relating to students, staff, alumni, friends and supporters of the School in pursuit of our legitimate interest in communicating with you to maintain and build our relationship with you and to provide information about projects, initiatives and developments which we believe will be of interest.

Where your personal data comes from

Most of the personal data the Communications Office retains is obtained directly from you:

- when you request information or otherwise provide us with your personal details (such as your name, contact details, e-mail address etc.) Information is stored on Campaign Monitor. you may view their privacy statement here.
- when you register your interest at a recruitment fair
- when you register to attend a GSA event (such as Open Day)
- when you provide images (stills or moving) of your work as student or alumnus, or otherwise provide testimonials to GSA
- from your usage of the website and any other information you post on the website, allow GSA to post on the website or associated platforms such as Flickr or Vimeo, e-mail, or otherwise send to us
- From GSA Academic Registry as part of your application to GSA or when you enroll as a student
- By subscribing to our database through the website you consent to the collection, storage, use and transfer of your personal data by us in accordance with the terms of this privacy notice:
 - You can subscribe on the GSA website to receive information from us, including general news or more specific information about becoming a student at GSA, or visiting GSA (You can unsubscribe at any time by clicking on the “Unsubscribe” link provided in the footer of our emails or by contacting us direct at gsa.ac.uk).

The personal data we retain

We may retain the following types of information about you:

- Your name
- Your email address
- Your address
- Your location
- What you are interested in hearing from us

How we use your personal data

We will only use your personal data (including images of work or the GSA where you or your work may be included):

- to supply you with the news and information which you have requested; and
- to invite you to events and happenings that might be of interest to you
- to promote the work of our students, staff and alumni

We use images of work across a range of digital platforms including the GSA website, social media and video and image sharing platforms. Images form part of the GSA's wider archive and are permanently retained.

Security of your personal data

We are highly conscious of the importance of managing securely the personal data that we retain, and all personal data is processed in accordance with data protection legislation – the requirements of which are regularly reviewed. Your data is held safely on a securely accessed system to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing, loss, destruction or damage of the data.
